30 TRASH AND SPECTACLE

THEATER

Andy Halliday brings 1950s-style gay pulp to Theater for the New City with his new Off-Broadway show Nothing But Trash.

THE NEXUS

- 4 The Week in Photos
- 4 Commentary: We've finally got an out pro athlete! Here's hoping he sticks around for a while.
- 6 Getting Personal with Saint Hoax
- 7 My Gay City: Lifethyme Natural Market
- 10 Commentary: Turning a ONS into an LTR: do it in person.
- 10 Gay DD
- 40 Shot in the Dark

EDITORS NOTE:

In this issue you'll notice that we are no longer running our weekly review columns The Right Track, Curtain Up, Eats, Reel Love and Double Take. Instead, we've decided to focus our resources on the things that our readers care about most: the people, places, topics and trends of gay New York. In the coming issues, look for weekly features—like this week's story on Off-Broadway show Nothing But Trash—covering various topics of interest to gay New Yorkers, increased Shot In The Dark party photography, and even more event info in the NextWeek calendar section.

NEXTWEEK

- 14 Calendar of Events
- 16 Brief Encounter: Chatting with the hardest working man in showbiz, Murray Hill, about his new, one-night-only blowout of a show.
- 21 Bar Crawl: How Malik So Chic does a Thursday night.
- 22 Bars + Clubs Map
- 26 The Roundup: Where to grab bar snacks to soak up all that gay booze you've been drinking.
- 28 Spotlight: Heathers: The Musical begins previews March 15—but we couldn't wait till then to get to know the cast.
- 29 When I Knew: Comedian Ike Avelli knew he was gay when he couldn't stop rocking out to Duran Duran and Olivia Newton-John.
